

ACCESSIBILITY POLICY HAZEN PUBLIC LIBRARY

Hazen Public Library strives to ensure that everyone is welcome and has access to the full range of information, services and programs that are offered in the library and makes it a priority to select and acquire, whenever possible, resources that are accessible to all.

Facility Accessibility

- Parking
- Entrances
- Restrooms

Event Accessibility

Requests for accommodations may be sent to the library, and staff will work to help make events accessible and meet requests for reasonable accommodations.

Resources for Patrons with Print Disabilities or Visual Impairment

- Audiobooks on CD, Play-A-Ways and through Overdrive and RBdigital
- Talking Books for qualified individuals through the North Dakota State Library
- Large Print materials
- Computers

Resources for Patrons with Learning, Cognitive, or Developmental Disabilities

- Movie screenings, art workshops, computer classes
- Sensory-friendly story time and play time for children
- Computers
- Talking Books for qualified individuals through the North Dakota State Library

Resources for Patrons that are Deaf or Hard of Hearing

- Captioned videos and DVDs
- Audiobooks on CD and Play-A-Ways
- Computers

Resources for Patrons with Physical Disabilities

- Talking Books for qualified individuals through the North Dakota State Library

Adopted: November 26, 2019

Effective: November 26, 2019