Intellectual Freedom

The Hazen Public Library is committed to the principles of intellectual freedom and affirms the American Library Association's Freedom to Read statement and the Library Bill of Rights. As such, materials representing diverse viewpoints on topics, including controversial ones, are actively collected. Selection of an item does not indicate that the Library, its Board, or its Staff agrees with the ideas and viewpoints it presents.

Reconsideration Requests

Requests will be taken only from community members and/or current patrons:

Only one (1) request at a time will be considered per community member and / or current patron.

This will be done respectfully and in a fashion that acknowledges and restates the patron's concerns.
 - c. If the patron has recommendations for other materials on the topic, they will be noted, and if appropriate, procured.

 - ii. Considering the objections in terms of the Library's Selection Policy, the principles of the Library Bill of Rights, and the opinions of various reviewing sources used in materials selection.
 - f. If the reviewed material does not meet the criteria set forth in the Selection Policy, the Library shall acknowledge that the material is unsuitable and it will be withdrawn from the collection.
 - g. If the material does meet the selection criteria, the item shall remain part of the collection
 - h. The Director will respond to the request clearly and precisely, stating the reasons the material was withdrawn or retained. This response will also inform the requestor how to pursue the matter further.
